This re-do of measures 47-48 of "Travis Pick the Hits!" contains the entire parallel-third vocal passage of the original recording, which the book version does not. The first beat of measure 47 requires the fretting hand to both move and release the bass note (which the book version does not), but provides all the vocal notes. In measure 48, fret the third-beat bass note with the ring finger, immediately releasing it as the the index finger slides from the 1st fret to the 3rd. - Mark Hanson
